

Horse blown into a tree by a "75," Verdun Sector.
The horse's head is about 12 feet from the ground.

These pictures give some idea of the gruesome aspect of the territory in which the men of the 321st had to live and fight while on the front.